

FEATURED PROJECT EVEN HOTELS

ASI is highlighting materials and projects that create an authentic guest experience at Hospitality Design Expo 2016! For this special edition of the Creativity and Collaboration SeriesSM, ASI interviews Glen Coben, Principal, Glen and Company, about the wellness connection he envisioned for the Even Hotel.

International Hotel Group, based in Atlanta, turned to Glen and Company to translate this emerging brand's healthy lifestyle concept into an active hospitality property. Resonating throughout the hotel, the guest experience includes engaging in physical activity, allowing guests to stay in an exercise routine on the road. With a fresh palette of eco-friendly ASI materials in the public spaces, guest rooms and restaurants, the Even Hotel Times Square South is an oasis for the modern traveler seeking to maintain an active stay!

"We wanted the Even Hotel to essentially have its own voice that comes out of the whole ethos of the brand. Sustainable products like the Interwoven Eco-Panels, MIXX® Porcelain and NaturaStone™ Porcelain plus the Cork Flooring installed in each of the guest rooms all reinforce this holistic concept. ASI figured out a way for us to realize our vision and communicate the essence of this wellness project, and once again successfully collaborate together" - Glen Coben, Principal, Glen and Company
